

GARREG, MOSAIG A MWY

GARREG, MOSAIC AND MORE

I'r mynydd a'r manau anghysbell

To the mountain and secluded places

Plas Brondanw

Cartref Syr Clough Williams-Ellis, pensaer enwog a chynllunydd Portmeirion, ac yma y bu farw yn 94 oed. Credir mai'r gerddi, sydd ar agor i'r cyhoedd, yw campwaith fwyaf Syr Clough.

Y Tŵr

Anrheg priodas i Syr Clough a Lady Amabel gan ei gyd filwyr. Yn lle anrheg arferol gofynnodd iddynt am arian i adeiladu adfail. O'r Tŵr mae modd gweld y môr a'r Wyddfa.

Y Mosaig

I'w weld ar wall Ysgol y Garreg. Creuwyd yn 2010 gan y disgyblion gyda help Ann Smith, artist lleol. Wedi ei wneud o deils, llechi a cherrig mân ac yn darlunio'r elfennau hynny sy'n gwneud Llanfrothen yn lle arbennig.

Plas Brondanw

Home of Sir Clough Williams-Ellis, renowned architect and creator of Portmeirion, died here at the age of 94. The gardens here, which are open to the public, are believed to be his greatest masterpiece.

The Tower

A wedding present for Sir Clough and Lady Amabel from his regiment. Not wanting the usual gift he asked for money to build a ruin. From the tower you can see the sea and Snowdon.

The Mosaic

Can be seen on the wall of Ysgol y Garreg. It was created in 2010 by the pupils with the help of Ann Smith a local artist. Made of tiles, slate and pebbles and depicts the elements which make Llanfrothen a special place.

Cynlluniwyd gan Syr Clough ac mae'r bwa a'r giât wedi eu cofrestru.

Garreg

A part of Llanfrothen village where the Menter Llanfrothen Units are, including the village shop. By the junction you can see the memorial to World War I. At the old Smithy, iron links to tie boats can still be seen. Before 1811, when the Cob (a sea defence) was built the tide came up to Garreg. The Brondanw Arms known locally as "The Ring" is the village pub and restaurant.

Ffynnon Gwyfil
